Coupa Supplier Actionable Notification (SAN)

Here at ACS, we are committed to spending donor dollars wisely. By doing so, we can fight cancer on all fronts in every community. Together, we're making a difference – and you can too! To join us in the fight, please visit cancer.org.

Coupa Supplier Actionable Notification, or SAN, is a method by which the supplier can transact with the American Cancer Society electronically using their email. Coupa is the American Cancer Society’s procure-to-pay platform.

The supplier will receive an email that contains a purchase order. Within that email, the supplier can acknowledge the purchase order and create an invoice using that same purchase order. Submitting your invoice electronically ensures accurate and faster payment.

You will receive the purchase order in an email from do_not_reply@cancer.coupahost.com in your inbox. Click the email to open it (like any typical email). Once opened, you can acknowledge the PO, and after you have provided the goods or services, you can create the invoice.

Refer to Resources for Suppliers for additional Coupa step guides and reference materials.
